12. (SBU) Italy has identified 500,000 euros to support the Ethiopian multi-role logistics unit in Darfur, according to MFA East Africa Office Director Giuseppe Pastorelli.
Pastorelli contacted poloff May 20 with a final response to our April 24 demarche (refs A and B) requesting support for the Ethiopian unit to the United Nations-African Union Mission in Darfur (UNAMID). Pastorelli said the MFA had decided to use resources allocated to the Italian Africa Peace Facility, a mechanism that Italy funds and directs jointly with the African Union (AU). He hoped that the funds could be dispersed within a few weeks, once coordination with the AU was complete. Pastorelli asked poloff to stress to the Department that the decision to commit these funds to UNAMID was made primarily due to the U.S. request.
